B-n-G Productions performance on the Emerald City Stage at Children's Fairyland on August 28 and 29 was an exciting combination of classical dance, lyrical dance, and modern hip hop. Fairyland's visiting families were excited to watch the eclectic program. B-n-G's talent ranges from gentle, classical pieces from the Disney movie "Mulan" to fast, urban hip hop set to music by Janet Jackson. The group was very professional. They arrived early to set up their music, props, and to get a feel for the stage. They were enthusiastic about performing for children in a unique venue such as Fairyland. Fairyland strives to provide varied entertainment to reflect the diversity of our community. The showcase by B-n-G Productions was a wonderful addition to Fairyland's mission. I extend my recommendation of B-n-G Productions.
